MEDIA RELEASE

THE HONOURABLE GLENDA JENNINGS-SMITH JOINS THE MINISTRY OF NATIONAL SECURITY AS PARLIAMENTARY SECRETARY

February 02nd, 2016.

The Minister of National Security, Major General (Ret'd) the Honourable Edmund Dillon, welcomes the appointment of Member of Parliament for Toco/Sangre Grande, the Honourable Glenda Jennings-Smith as Parliamentary Secretary in the Ministry of National Security.

Mrs. Jennings-Smith has over twenty-five (25) years of solid experience in law enforcement, having attained the rank of Assistant Commissioner of Police, in the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service (TTPS) prior to her retirement.

She has proven abilities, knowledge, and skills to initiate or help implement initiatives, and meet demands in the law enforcement environment, especially in relation to gang culture and police outreach programmes.

It is envisioned that Mrs. Jennings-Smith, through her broad array knowledge and experience will assist Minister Dillon in the current and future endeavours of the Ministry.

Mrs. Jennings-Smith holds a Master's Degree in Applied Criminology and Police Management at Cambridge University in England, United Kingdom and attended the University of the West Indies, where she completed studies in Public Administration and Social Work.

His Excellency Anthony Carmona, President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago appointed Mrs. Glenda Jennings-Smith as Parliamentary Secretary in the Ministry of National Security earlier today, Tuesday January 2nd 2016.
