MEDIA RELEASE

MINISTER DILLON MEETS WITH THE U.S. CHARGE D'AFFAIRES

11 September 2015

The Minister of National Security, Major General the Honourable Edmund Dillon had his first courtesy call today with the Chargé d'Affaires of the United States Embassy, Mrs. Margaret Diop at his office on Abercromby Street in Port of Spain.

Discussions during the meeting focused on issues of mutual importance for Trinidad and Tobago and the United States. Minister Dillon was also briefed by Ms. Diop on the current collaborative approach to National Security currently in place between the two countries, with respect to law enforcement strategies, initiatives and training.

Minister Dillon looked forward to the greater enhancement of security cooperation between Trinidad and Tobago and the United States and was appreciative of all the support rendered by the United States Embassy to the Government of Trinidad and Tobago in the past.

Minister Dillon welcomed the US Government's continued assistance to improve the nation's National Security Framework.
