Minister Hinds delivered remarks at the Opening Ceremony and commended the nine (9) inmates participating in this year's Exhibition. Approximately sixty (60) pieces of artwork in various forms were presented under the theme "Prisons Real & Imagined – The Transformative Power of Art in Corrections".

The Minister noted that, even though the COVID-19 pandemic temporarily halted this annual event, the inmates continued to refine their artistic skills as part of their rehabilitation process. The exhibition is part of the Trinidad and Tobago Prison Service's larger programme for rehabilitation and restoration.
