After a two-year hiatus from traditional Independence Day festivities due to the Covid-19 pandemic, Trinidad and Tobago will celebrate its Diamond Jubilee with the customary military parade on Wednesday August 31, 2022. The Government has also launched a month-long calendar of activities to mark the auspicious occasion.

As we enjoy the celebrations, may we reflect on our achievements, growth and development as a selfgoverning nation and may the tenets of democracy shaped by our forefathers continue to guide our country's progress!

Happy 60th Independence to all!
