TTPS OFFICERS SPREAD CHRISTMAS CHEER IN VALENCIA

Members of the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service (TTPS) Valencia Post distributed Christmas hampers and items of clothing to several families, during the Valencia Community Care Caravan held on December 3, 2023 at Festival Flamboyant Crescent, Valencia.

The event, which saw over five hundred (500) children treated to gifts and entertainment, and also offered health services to guests, formed part of an initiative themed, "Every Child Deserves to be Happy and Cared for".

The project was held in collaboration with Project GRACE, the Valencia Station Council, the Inter-Religious Networking Group and several Police Youth Clubs in the area, in an effort to bring joy to the young people within the community.

TRANSIT POLICE OFFICERS COMMENDED FOR DEDICATION TO SERVICE

Three (3) Police Officers attached to the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service Transit Police Unit (TPU) recently received commendations in recognition of their commitment to duty and outstanding work.

At a Tribute Ceremony held on November 9, 2023, at the Barataria Police Station, Police

Constables Jervin Neptune, Ferri Baboolal and Utonia Nicome were presented with commendation plaques and tokens of appreciation for their keen sense of observation, dedication and devotion to duty, after detaining an alleged murder suspect and seizing several weapons and ammunition, following the detection of a breached red light on September 30, 2023.

Presenting the commendations were Senior Superintendent (Ag.), North Eastern Division, Mervyn Edwards and members of his Executive Team.

Superintendent (Ag.) Edwards urged the officers to continue being vigilant as they enforce the traffic laws, as breaches of these regulations can be precursors to serious crimes.
