GREETINGS FOR THE NEW YEAR FROM THE MNS EXECUTIVE

The Minister of National Security, Permanent Secretaries and other members of the Executive Leadership Team, express best wishes to all staff of the Ministry of National Security for the upcoming New Year.

Let us come together in 2024 with renewed enthusiasm and fortitude to continue delivering on our Ministry's mandate, while working as a unified and efficient team.

May the New Year also inspire us to achieve both personal and professional growth. Let us approach 2024 with an outlook of hope, peace and kindness.

Have a Happy and Productive 2024!

TTPS BOOSTS MANPOWER IN TOBAGO

In an effort to enhance safety and security in Tobago during the Christmas season and in the coming new year, the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service (TTPS) increased its manpower and provided reinforcement in the Tobago Division, by transferring a team of officers from Trinidad to assume duty in Tobago.

Upon the arrival of the officers in Tobago last week, a Mobile/Foot Patrol was conducted in the Downtown Scarborough area, where several vehicles and persons were stopped and searched. The exercise was spearheaded by Assistant Commissioners of Police Collis Hazel and Kelfern Thompson.

These exercises will continue across the island.

POLICE OFFICERS PARTICIPATE IN CHRISTMAS GIFT DISTRIBUTION DRIVE

On Christmas Day, Monday December 25, 2023, Trinidad and Tobago Police Service (TTPS) officers attached to the Valencia Police Post distributed over one hundred (100) gifts to families in the community.

This Gift Distribution Drive was a collaborative initiative between the Valencia Police Post and a resident, Sherminka Reason. On Christmas morning, several children and families, from Clarence Trace, Palm Road, Plantation Road, Benny Road, and Cumaca Road, were presented with hampers and goodie bags to help them celebrate the season.
